

7.3

Institutional Distinctiveness.

“Ajinkyatara is fort on one fo the seven mountains surrounding the city of Satara, in the Sahyadri Mountains of Maharashtra. It is a 16th century fort, that was called “Ajimtara” during Aurangzeb regime and was based on Aurangzeb son’s name Ajim.

The fort is located at Ajinkyatara mountain, which is 3,300 feet high. Ajinkyatara fort offers a panoramic view of Satara city. Among the top place to visit in Satara. Ajinkyatara fort was built by Raja Bhoj of Shilahara dynasty.

NSS department of our college has organized camp. Many temples and place destroyed on Ajinkyatara fort. This NSS camp become helpful for students. To understand the history of Ajinkyatara fort. Cleaning campaign is implemented in Rajwada, Mahadev temple, Dakshin Darwaja, Dhanyache Kothar etc.

Under this campaign, many objects hidden in the mounds of soil and bushesh for many years were revived. As a result, Many tourists have started turning their feet there.

NSS Department of our college is implemented conservation of buildings, water conservation, tree plantaion, tree conservation, Excavation of contour. Cleaning campaign is carried out.

I/C Principal
Arts and Commerce College
Satara.